Benefits of Membership

- Access to SustainableFuture's Citizen Engagement Program:

A core benefit of SustainableFuture is the ability for your employees, students and members to participate in collaborative, fun, educational and impactful programs with other citizens that improve their sustainability, wellbeing, and resilience. They will love the delightful design and capabilities of this modern, mobile-ready app. You will love having access to world-class content and technology with the ability to also add your own custom programs and events, improve communications, and analytics and advanced reporting that shows impact.

- Engaging Communities, Content and Events that Provide Best Practices and Ideas

As a SustainableFuture member, all of your employees get access to knowledge and ideas that help shape your own resilience, wellbeing and sustainability strategy. Your team can join any of our cluster communities and attend events that cover high-level trends and best practices for free or at the member discount rate. Additionally, they have access to helpful research and content that the SustainableFuture team is collecting.

- A Dedicated Community Management Team:

SustainableFuture.org is a local organization dedicated to the community of Santa Barbara. We are partnering with business, schools, faith groups, and local government to create a new future, knowing that no one organization can afford do this alone. Our community management team is helping to connect, organize and inspire your internal champions so they have the support they need to educate and engage your members, students and employees.

- Visibility for Your Company and Leadership Opportunities for Your People

As a SustainableFuture member, your company receives opportunities to show your expertise and experience. We consider members first for speaking opportunities, and sponsorship opportunities are only available to members. Plus, our cluster communities are so interactive, you get exposure simply by participating.
